GRADING SYSTEM

Work is evaluated continuously and cumulatively, considering the participation in the theoretical and seminar sessions, as well as the evolution of the work of the subject in its various phases (as specified in the section 'Activities').

Continuous evaluation
It is based on the work that the student develops during the semester, through deliverables according to the criteria and schedule established.

Final evaluation
If the continuous evaluation is not positive, a second evaluation can be carried out, which will consist of a final global test in the format established according to the criteria of the faculty (written or oral test and / or submission of papers).

Continuous telematic evaluation
In online teaching situations, continuous assessment will be carried out synchronously and asynchronously by the means established by the University and the School, with a periodic record of academic activity through submissions, forums, questionnaires or any other means facilitated by the Atenea platform, or the alternatives provided to the teaching staff. In the situations in which this telematic teaching is a product of face-to-face teaching that has already begun, or for questions of extra-academic order, the changes in the weightings or regular control systems of the teaching will be communicated in detail to all students by the Athena of each subject.

Telematic final evaluation
If the continuous telematic evaluation is not positive, a second evaluation can be carried out, which will consist of a final test of a global nature in telematic format that will be established in accordance with the criteria of the professor responsible and the media and ICTs provided by the University or School.

The measures for adaptation to non-classroom teaching will be implemented in accordance with the criteria of ICT security and personal data protection to ensure compliance with the legislation on Personal Data Protection (RGPD and LOPDGDD)
