TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The course is divided into three parts:

Theory classes
Practical classes
Self-study for doing exercises and activities.

In the theory classes, teachers will introduce the theoretical basis of the concepts, methods and results and illustrate them with examples appropriate to facilitate their understanding.

In the practical classes (in the classroom), teachers guide students in applying theoretical concepts to solve problems, always using critical reasoning. We propose that students solve exercises in and outside the classroom, to promote contact and use the basic tools needed to solve problems.

Students, independently, need to work on the materials provided by teachers and the outcomes of the sessions of exercises/problems, in order to fix and assimilate the concepts.

The teachers provide the curriculum and monitoring of activities (by ATENEA).
LEARNING OBJECTIVES OF THE SUBJECT

The aim of the course is to develop a business plan in order to create a business. The course uses the knowledge of other subjects in the area of finance, marketing or human resources. Students have to create their business plan from their own idea and following a specific methodology. This course is designed to awaken a spirit of creativity and active in front of business opportunities. To this end, part of an initial reflection: “good ideas generate good business and good business needs a good business plan. However, a good business plan can not turn a bad idea into a good business.”
