

Dear Sir or Madam,

The Faculty of Arts at the University of Ljubljana is hosting the fourth International student film and video festival Filofest. The festival will take place between 10th and 14th December 2012 in Ljubljana, Slovenia, Europe. The competition part of the programme will feature independent student films, while the non-competition part of the programme will screen productions of students of film schools and academies.

We kindly ask you to inform your students and student bodies at your university about the festival. All students who are involved in film and video production, or would either like to take part in the educational part of the programme and panels, or see the screenings and vote for their favourite films are invited to participate in the festival. The call for entries closes on 10th October, the entry form and the rules and regulations of the festival are available at our website.

You are welcome to check out our website at www.filofest.com or contact me at danko@filofest.com. I will be happy to answer any and all questions regarding the festival.

We are looking forward to your films and hope to see you and your students in Ljubljana in December.

Best regards,

Danko Ostojic
